

PROCUREMENT COMPETENCE CAREER PATH FRAMEWORK FOR NI PUBLIC SECTOR

Procurement Training Network Terms Of Reference

- To Share knowledge of best training and development practice across the public sector for procurement professionals
- Central co-ordination of procurement training and development activities to ensure common needs are met in a cost effective timely and consistent manner across the public sector
- To promote innovation in development of procurement professionals including job rotation, attachments secondments and mentoring
- To maintain pressure to increase the proportion of staff with procurement skills appropriate to their levels of responsibility
- To identify and resolve common issues in relation to procurement training and development
- Benchmark with current best practice for the development of procurement professionals across both Great Britain and the Republic of Ireland